

Provisional Agenda

(UN Ocean Conference)

Agenda is the normative document which establishes the order in which the Agenda Items are taken up during the conference. Before the conference, the Directors shall release a Provisional Agenda which includes all issues that the Directors deem necessary for discussion. Delegates may request the inclusion of Supplementary Items on issues that they deem requisite for discussion but have been excluded from the Provisional Agenda. Draft Resolutions shall be introduced in the order of business set by the agenda once it is officially adopted. Only one agenda will be adopted in the conference. All delegates should read the agenda carefully before the conference for more efficient and fruitful discussions.

Please find below the Provisional Agenda of UN Ocean Conference.

Provisional Agenda

Committee: United Nations Ocean Conference

Topic A. Sustainable Development of Seaweed Industries

- A. Investment in Product Development
- B. Market Research and Application
- C. Personnel Competence Enhancement

Topic B. Ocean Farming: Opportunities and Challenges

- D. Popularization of Restorative Farming Pattern
- E. Industrial Management and Extension
- F. Promotion of Products Circulation and International Cooperation

Based on the analysis of the topics and their countries' stance, delegates should decide with discretion whether to submit Supplementary Items or not. Delegates may briefly account for the Supplementary Items to the directors, who will keep a record of all and reserve the right to decide whether or not to include them. Based on the Provisional Agenda and the accepted Supplementary Items, the Directors shall draft and release a Draft Agenda before the beginning of the conference, after which the Directors shall accept no more Supplementary Items.

The Supplementary Items MUST be submitted to the committee's mailbox UNOC@bimun.org.cn before 21:59 GMT+8, 24 April, 2021. NO EXTENSION is permitted. Items submitted after the deadline will not be accepted by the Directors.